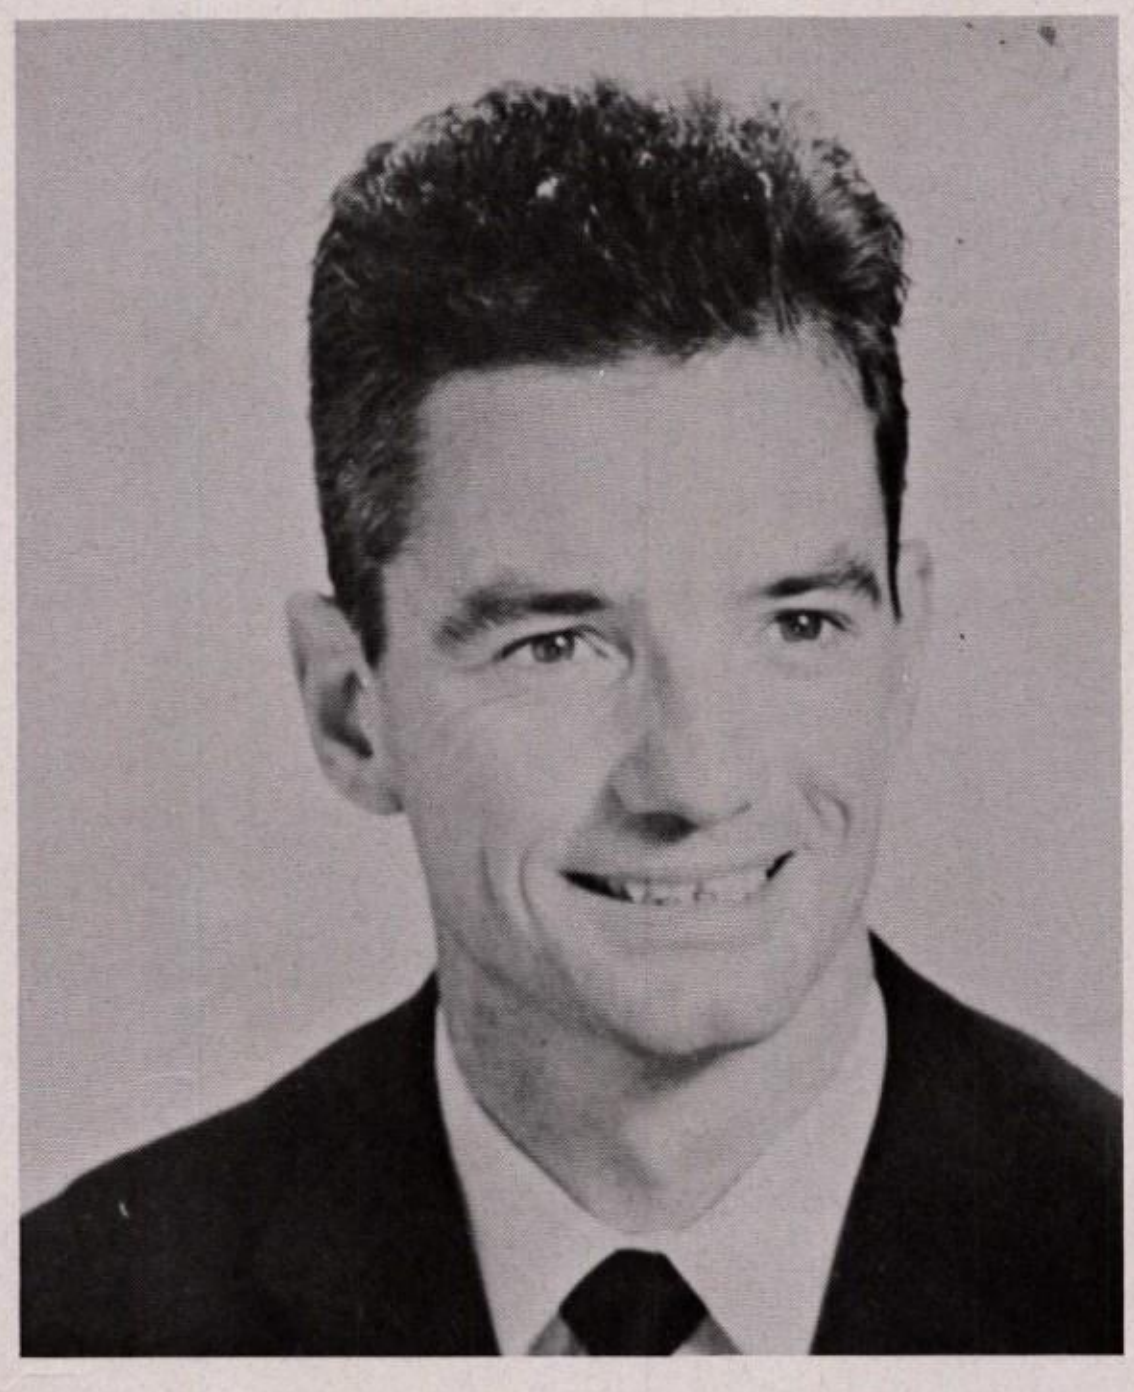
Dedication



For the past three years, the students of Maxton High School have been fortunate indeed in having in their presence a person who has served in the dual role of teacher and coach. Because of his enthusiasm in promoting athletics, his co-operation and general unselfishness, his capability for real friendship, his exceptional teaching ability, and his high ideals, we, the Senior Class of 1956, affectionately dedicate this volume of The Pine Cone to . . .

COACH WILEY STEED

Best luck and wishes for the future Coach.

As we come to the end of our high school careers, we cannot help but think back to that bleak September day in the year 1944 when we took our seats in the first grade. Many things have been done and forgotten since then. How well we remember the wonderful parties given to us by our grade-mothers, our class plays, the interesting and exciting trips we took, and all of the new acquaintances that we made. Then came our Junior year and all of the excitement, anticipation, and work that went into our Mardi Gras festival. And finally our Senior year--our trip to Washington, the Junior-Senior, our graduation parties, and Class Night are now all pleasant memories. We have entered into all the phases of school life, and we will never forget the happy hours spent in the halls and classrooms of Maxton High School--home of twelve of the happiest years of our lives.

Senior Grademothers

What could we have done without our grademothers? Without their able guidance, along with all of the other mothers of the Seniors, nothing could have been accomplished in the successful manner that all grade projects have been.

We are grateful to our grademothers-- Mrs. Cottingham, Mrs. Croom, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Gentry, Mrs. Kitchin, Mrs. McGill, Mrs. McGrit, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Watson--for their never failing help and patient understanding of us and our many problems.

The Juniors have certainly been "on the ball." After planning early for their activities of the year, they began right away to make money for the Junior-Senior. Among their money-making schemes, you will find that they have held raffles and rummage sales, sold magazines and Christmas cards, served suppers, published a fine Mac Hi, and done an efficient job of handling the concession stand at the ball games. Other than being terrific "money-makers," they have also taken part in the Beta Club, in athletics, and in all other phases of school life. Without a doubt, the Juniors, under the very capable guidance of Miss Bullock, will make the Junior-Senior banquet and dance the most colorful event of the year.

In Appreciation

During our Junior year, we had the privilege of having as our adviser a person whom we shall always remember. Her love and affection for her pupils and her interests in their work, her untiring efforts in setting a Christian example, her constant inspiration and guidance, and her ability to lead and direct us in our many tasks have endeared her to our hearts. Now as we conclude our final year in Maxton High School, we wish to pause here in appreciation to . . .

Homecoming 1955

On October 28, 1955, Maxton High School celebrated its homecoming. The afternoon festivities began with a parade consisting of a band, floats, queens from each of the grades in school, and children dressed in Halloween costumes.

That night at eight o'clock the intense rivalry between the Red Springs Red Devils and the Maxton Rebels exploded in a burst of action as the two teams fought for the County Championship.

During half-time Betty Grey Webb was crowned Homecoming Queen for the high school and Betsy McLaurin and Susan Richardson for the grammar and primary grades.

The second half proved to be as exciting as the first with the Maxton Rebels winning by a score of 20-12.

Dearest Nancy,

I hardly know what to write! I've been writing in your annuals so many years now! I've enjoyed being in school with you very much these past nine years, especially this year and all the fun we had getting ready for the Jr.-Sr. Don't ever forget the wonderful things we've done together, the State, Fair (HA!) Jr.-Sr, Beauty Contest, and all of the other things!

Stay as sweet and as cute as you are now and you should go far in life.

Love always,

Joanne

Lots of luck to a
